Superintendent's Highlights

The Plummer Worley School District continues to make the necessary changes and improvements to prepare for and meet the challenges of the exit standards movement. The Lakeside High School is currently working under a "High Schools That Work" grant to reform its high school programs. The Lakeside Middle School reform efforts continue to move toward improved operations and programs. The district recently received a grant to improve ADA accommodations for facilities.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

2001-02 Goals	Progress
Increase student achievement	Reading scores continue to show marked improvement at all grade levels.
Improve student attendance district wide	The school board adopted a revised attendance policy which requires increased attendance and sets forth procedures to be followed to inhibit absenteeism.
Continue to improve the education environment.	Data continues to show significantly reduced incidents of violence (defined as any look, word or action that harms a persons feelings, belongings, or body) with continuation of the Respect and Protect (No Violence) policy.
